EXAMEN

Dialogue:

[Scene: A restaurant. You arrive at your reserved table with your two directors.]

You: Good afternoon, I have a reservation under the name Mateo López.

Hostess: Good afternoon, Mr. Mateo López. Your table is ready right this way.

[You are led to your table and seated.]

You: Thank you.

[You and your directors look over the menus.]

Director 1: I think I'll have the vegan portobello mushroom burger. I've been wanting to try it for a while now.

Director 2: I'm going to have the vegan pad thai. I've heard it's really good.

You: I'll have the vegan quinoa salad. It's my favorite dish here. I used to eat meat, but I switched to a vegan diet a few years ago, and I've never felt better.

[The waiter approaches your table.]

Waiter: Can I get you anything to drink?

You: I'll have a glass of sparkling water, please.

Director 1: I'll have a freshly squeezed orange juice.

Director 2: I'll have a soy latte.

Waiter: Very good. Your drinks will be right out.

[The waiter leaves.]

You: So, what are your thoughts on the new marketing campaign?

Director 1: I think it's been very successful. We haven't seen a decline in plant-based product sales yet.

Director 2: I agree. We're still getting a lot of positive feedback from customers.

You: That's great to hear. I'm glad we're all on the same page.

[The waiter returns with your drinks.]

Waiter: Here are your drinks.

You: Thank you.

[You and your directors continue to chat for a while.]

[The waiter approaches your table again.]

Waiter: Are you ready to order your meals?

You: Yes, we are.

[You and your directors place your orders.]

[The waiter leaves.]

You: So, what are your plans for the next semester?

Director 1: I'm hoping to expand our vegan menu options to include more diverse and innovative dishes. I've been working with our chefs to develop some new recipes that I think our customers will love.

Director 2: I'm looking to increase our partnerships with local vegan farms and businesses to support sustainable practices. I've been talking to some potential partners who are really passionate about making a difference in the world.

You: Those are both great goals. I'm confident that we can achieve them together and make our company a leader in the vegan food industry. I've been with this company for over 10 years, and I've seen us grow and change so much. I'm excited to see what the future holds for us.

[The waiter brings your food.]

Waiter: Here is your food. Enjoy!

[You and your directors eat your meals.]

You: Well, this has been a great meeting. Thanks for your time, everyone.

Director 1: It was my pleasure.

Director 2: Me too.

[You and your directors pay your bill and leave the restaurant.]

[End scene]
